

EU Sustainable Energy Week EUSEW'11
Charlemagne Building, Room: Jean Durieux
(near to metro Schumann), Brussels.

100 % Renewables and Low-Carbon Scenarios in Europe by 2050.
Comparison, Development, Driving Forces, Barriers.
Stakeholder Dialogue Experiences from Germany and France.

Session1: 100% Renewables Scenarios and other Low-Carbon Scenarios

Moderator: Jan Burck, Germanwatch

- 1. Introduction to Seminar and Low Carbon Societies Network Project.
- Meike Fink, Climate Action Network - France (RAC-France), FP7 Project leader
- 2. 100% Renewables and Low-Carbon Scenarios in Europe - a Comparison
- Gunnar Boye Olesen, International Network for Sustainable Energy (INFORSE-Europe)
- 3. Low-Carbon Scenarios for Germany and France made with Advanced, Macroeconomic Models: different problems, different solutions.
- Ruben Bibas, Centre International de Recherche sur l'Environnement et le Développement (CIRED), Paris and Eva Schmid, Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research (PIK).
- 4. Discussion

Coffee Break (15.45 - 16.15)

Session 2: Stakeholder Involvements in Scenario Building

Moderator: Rebecca Collyer, European Climate Foundation (ECF)

- 1. Stakeholder Involvement in Development of Scenarios for Transitions to Low Carbon / 100% Renewables Societies
How to Involve Stakeholders? - Obstacles and success criteria, will scenario methodology limit the choice of stakeholders, coalition building, stakeholder involvement during the elaboration of scenarios - Meike Fink and Stéphane La Branche Planet, Energy, Climate Change Institute of Political Studies, Grenoble
- Experiences with stakeholder dialogues in Germany - Jan Burck, Germanwatch
- Questions and answers
- 2. Panel Debate: Involving Stakeholders in the Transition to Low-Carbon Societies - the Way Ahead? - What is the added value of involving many stakeholders?
Good and bad experiences. What kinds of stakeholder dialogues should be part of the coming transition to low-carbon societies? - Rebecca Collyer (ECF), Chris Church (specialist on environment, social and community development), Georges Mercadal (former vice president of the French CNDP - National Commission of Public Debate), Jan Burck (Germanwatch), Myriam Boveda (Energies Demain).
- 3. Discussion

Registration is compulsory, register at www.eusew.eu

Organised by INFORSE-Europe (www.inforse.org/europe), in cooperation with Germanwatch (www.germanwatch.org), Climate Action Network - France (www.rac-f.org) and with the Low-Carbon Societies Network <http://www.lowcarbon-societies.eu>, ENCI-LowCarb FP7 Project. See also: http://www.inforse.org/europe/conf_EUSEW11_04-14.htm